

1

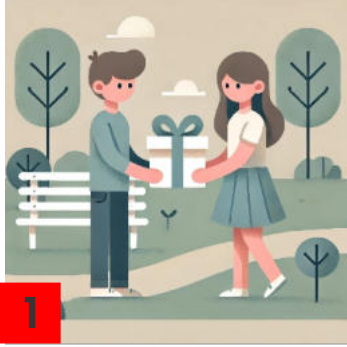

SUBJECT AND OBJECT PRONOUNS

Subject and Object Pronouns

Subject pronouns replace the doer of the action (I, you, we, he, she, it, they), while object pronouns replace the receiver of the action (me, you, us, him, her, it, them).

Example Sentences

1

He gave her a gift .

2

She showed him the way.

3

They helped us.

4

We invited them to a party.

Exercises

1.1

Complete the sentences with subject pronouns.

 Sami has a dog.

He

has a dog.

 Sarah and Sami are here.

_____ are here.

 Sofia speaks Russian.

_____ speaks Russian.

 The pens are new.

_____ are new.

 David and I like tennis.

_____ like tennis.

 The house is very old.

_____ is very old.

 My sister is late.

_____ is late.

1.2

Complete the sentences with object pronouns.

 I can see Ali and Sofia.

I can see them.

 I know that man.

I know _____.

 I work with David.

I work with _____.

 Suzy loved the flowers.

Suzy loved _____.

 You can come with Sami and me.

You can come with _____.

 This book is for you, Sami, and for you, Sofia.

This book is for _____.

 You can open the letter.

You can open _____.