VERB PATTERNS (LOVE, LIKE, HATE, ENJOY, KEEP)

Verbs with + ing form

When we use two verbs together, the second verb is sometimes in the -ing form. This happens with the verbs love, like, hate, enjoy, keep, etc.

-  I love reading books.
-  We like watching movies.
-  She hates waiting.
-  They enjoy singing songs.
-  He keeps trying.

TO + Base Form

After a verb, we sometimes use to + base form.

We use ing form to express our likes and dislikes, and we use to + base form to talk about actions you prefer or wish to do with the verbs like need, want, would like, plan, hope, try, etc.

-  I need to prepare for the exam.
-  We want to eat pizza.
-  They plan to visit the zoo.
-  She hopes to get good grades.
-  You try to learn fast.
-  I would like to have a cup of tea.
