

20 ADVERBS

An adverb is a word that tells us more about a verb. It gives extra information about how, when, or where an action happens.

For example:

-  She runs fast. (How does she run?)
-  He came yesterday. (When did he come?)
-  The children are playing outside. (Where are the children playing?)

Types of Adverbs

Adverbs of Manner (How something happens)

Tell us how an action is done.

For example:

- | | | |
|---|---|--|
|  slowly |  quickly |  loudly |
|  happily |  quietly | |

 The cat walked slowly across the room.

 She sang the song beautifully.

 The dog barked loudly at the strangers.

 He walked slowly to enjoy the cool breeze.

Adverbs of Time (When something happens)

Tell us when an action happens.

For example:

 now

 later

 today

 yesterday

 soon

 I will finish my homework tomorrow.

 I will start my homework now.

 We went on a picnic yesterday.

 She will call you tomorrow.

20.1 Underline the adverbs.

 She danced beautifully at the show.

 He will finish his homework today.

 They walked slowly in the park.

 The baby cried loudly.

 We will leave for the party soon.

20.2 Circle the adverbs and draw an arrow to the verb they describe.

 He smiled happily.

 The children are coming now.

 She read the story slowly.

 We will travel tomorrow.

 The teacher spoke loudly to quiet the class.