23.6

Reflect on what festivals in Pakistan mean to you. How do they bring joy and unity to your community?

23.7 The Kindness Chain

Imagine that Hassan's act of kindness in "The Generous Boy and the Hungry Stranger" inspires others in the village to perform their own acts of kindness. Write a story about how one small act of generosity leads to a chain of kindness in the village. Include examples of what different people do to help others and how this makes the village a better place.

23.8 The Little Bird's Adventure

Create a story about the little bird after it is released back into the garden. Describe its adventures as it explores new places, meets other animals, and continues to sing. How does the bird use its experiences to help others, just like the gardener helped it? What lessons does the bird learn about friendship and kindness?
