

5

PRESENT SIMPLE TENSE

Formation

Types	Structures	Examples
Affirmative	Subject + base form of verb + object	She walks to school every day.
Negative	Subject + do/does + not + base form of verb+obj	She doesn't walk to school every day.
Interrogative	Do/Does + subject + base form of verb+obj?	Does she walk to school every day?

Uses

Uses	Example
Things that are always true	- Water boils at 100 degrees. - The Sun rises in the East.
Permanent or regular activities	- I live in Karachi. - She goes to school every day.
Opinions and thoughts	- I like pizza. - He thinks the movie is boring.
With time expressions such as always, normally, often, sometimes, every day	- I often read books. - They always arrive early.
Imperatives Imperatives are sentences that give instructions, commands, advice, suggestions, or requests. They usually begin with the verb.	Sit down, stop talking, let's go for a walk, try reading this book, drink more water, exercise regularly, please keep quiet.
Stative Verbs The verb "be" (is, am, are) is a stative verb used to show a state, condition, or existence rather than an action.	- She is a teacher. (State of Being) - We are ready for the trip. (Condition) - There is a book on the table. (Existence)

Possessions

We use "has" and "have" as stative verbs to indicate possession, relationships, or states such as illness.

- I have a bicycle. (Possession)
- She has a beautiful dress. (Possession)
- He has two sisters. (Relationships)
- They have many friends. (Relationships)
- She has a fever. (illness)

More Examples

Subject	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
I	I walk to school every day.	I don't walk to school every day.	Do I walk to school every day?
She / He / It/ Ali	She walks to school every day.	She doesn't walk to school every day.	Does she walk to school every day?
We / You / They	They walk to school every day.	They don't walk to school every day.	Do they walk to school every day?

5.1

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in brackets.

-  He _____ (go) to school every day.
-  They _____ (play) football in the park every weekend.
-  She _____ (not like) spicy food.
-  We _____ (study) English in the morning.
-  My father _____ (read) the newspaper every morning.
-  The shop _____ (open) at 9 AM every day.
-  She _____ (be) my best friend.
-  I _____ (be) happy to see you.
-  They _____ (be) playing in the park.

 We _____ (have) a new house.

 He _____ (have) the flu.

5.2 Rewrite the sentences as affirmatives.

 She doesn't play the piano.

They don't go to school on Sundays.

He doesn't like vegetables.

 I don't watch TV at night.

We don't eat breakfast together.

The cat doesn't sleep on the sofa.

5.3 Rewrite the sentences as negatives and interrogatives.

 She sings beautifully.

 They eat dinner at 8 PM.

 He drives a red car.

 The cat sleeps on the sofa.

 She likes coffee.

 We play cricket every Saturday.

5.4 Correct the mistakes.

 He don't likes pizza.

 She go to school every day.

 We doesn't go to the park.

 Do they plays football?

 Does she likes coffee.

 We doesn't go to the park.

5.5

Write whether the sentence is a Command, Suggestion, Advice, or Request.

 Sit down immediately.

 Let's go for a walk.

 Please turn off the light.

 Drink more water in summer.

 Don't touch the glass.

 Try reading this book.

 Please help me carry this bag.

 Always finish your homework on time.

5.6 Write two examples for each type of imperative.

 Commands

 Suggestions

 Advice

 Requests
