

6

PRESENT CONTINUOUS TENSE

Formation

Type	Structures	Examples
Affirmative	Subject + am/is/are + verb (ing) + object	She is walking to school now.
Negative	Subject + am/is/are + not + verb (ing) + obj	She isn't walking to school now.
Interrogative	Am/Is/Are + subject + verb (ing) + object?	Is she walking to school now?

Uses

Uses	Example
Actions happening now	- The water is boiling. - I'm studying for an exam.
Temporary situations	- She is working in Lahore this week. - They are staying at a hotel.
Actions in progress with time expressions such as now, at the moment, this week, today, nowadays, these days	- We're having dinner at the moment. - Why are you walking today? - What are you doing these days? - I'm learning English nowadays.
Actions describing future plans	- We are going to Lahore next week. - She is buying a new car by the end of this month.
Changing and developing situations	- She is getting bored. - It is getting cold in Quetta.

More Examples of Present Continuous Tense

Subject	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
I	I am walking to school now.	I am not walking to school now.	Am I walking to school now?
She / He / It / Ali	She is walking to school now.	She isn't walking to school now.	Is she walking to school now?
We / You / They	They are walking to school now.	They aren't walking to school now.	Are they walking to school now?

6.1

Fill in the blanks with the present continuous form of the verb:

-  They _____ (watch) TV right now.
-  She _____ (write) a letter at the moment.
-  I _____ (not play) football today.
-  The children _____ (not sleep) in their room.
-  Are you _____ (study) for the exam?
-  We _____ (wait) for the bus at the moment.

6.2

Rewrite the sentences as affirmatives.

-  She isn't cooking dinner.

-  They aren't playing outside.

-  He isn't studying for the test.

 I'm not watching a movie.

 We aren't reading the book.

 The baby isn't sleeping.

 My friends aren't coming over.

 You aren't listening to me.

 It isn't raining now.

 The students aren't writing an essay.

6.3

Rewrite the sentences as negatives and interrogatives.

 She is walking to school.

 They are playing football in the park.

 He is studying for his exams.

 The kids are making noise.

 I am writing a letter.

 We are eating dinner now.

6.4

Correct the mistakes.

 He isn't plays football today.

 They are doesn't watching TV now.

 Is she walks to school?

 We aren't waits for the bus.

 The children is studying.

 Are he listening to music?