

7

PAST SIMPLE TENSE

Formation

Types	Structures	Examples
Affirmative	Subject + past tense verb + object	She walked to school yesterday.
Negative	Subject + did not (didn't) + base form of verb + object	She didn't walk to school yesterday.
Interrogative	Did + subject + base form of verb + object?	Did she walk to school yesterday?

Uses

Uses	Example
Completed actions in the past	- I visited Lahore last week. - She finished her homework an hour ago.
A series of past actions	- He opened the door, entered the room, and sat down.
Past habits or routines	- We always went to the park when we were kids.
Stative Verbs The verb "be" (was, were) is a stative verb used to show a state, condition, or existence in the past.	- She was a teacher. (State of Being) - We were ready for the trip. (Condition) - There was a book on the table. (Existence)
Possessions We use had as a stative verb to indicate possession, relationships, or states such as illness in the past.	- She had a beautiful dress. (Possession) - They had many friends. (Relationships) - I had a headache. (Illness)

Examples

Subject	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
I	I walked to school yesterday.	I didn't walk to school yesterday.	Did I walk to school yesterday?
She / He / It / Ali	She walked to school yesterday.	She didn't walk to school yesterday.	Did she walk to school yesterday?
We / You / They	They walked to school yesterday.	They didn't walk to school yesterday.	Did they walk to school yesterday?

7.1

Fill in the blanks with the past simple form of the verb.

 She _____ (visit) her grandparents last week.

 We _____ (not go) to the park yesterday.

 They _____ (play) football on Sunday.

 The train _____ (arrive) on time.

 He _____ (buy) a new car last month.

 She _____ (finish) her homework before dinner.

 I _____ (be) at school yesterday.

 We _____ (be) very tired after the match.

 She _____ (be) late for the meeting.

 They _____ (have) many friends.

7.2

Rewrite the sentences as affirmatives.

 She didn't call me yesterday.

 They didn't win the match.

 He didn't come to the party.

 I didn't eat lunch.

 We didn't visit the museum.

7.3

Rewrite the sentences as negatives.

 She visited her grandparents last week.

 We went to the park yesterday.

 He bought a new car last month.

 The children played in the garden.

 I finished my homework before dinner.

 They arrived late last night.

 You were the best cricketers.

 She was a story teller last year.

 Sara had a headache yesterday.

 Ali had a beautiful watch.

7.4

Rewrite the sentences as interrogative.

 Last week, she spent time with her grandparents.

 Yesterday, we had a visit to the park.

 He bought a new car.

 My friend cooked biryani yesterday.

 Sara had a fever.

 They came in late last night.

 Ali was a good athlete when he was five

 We were ready for the picnic.

 There was a party in the hall last week.

 They ran for a mile in the ground.

7.4

Correct the mistakes.

 She doesn't went to school yesterday.

 Did they plays football last Sunday?

 He buyed a car last week.

 I didn't finished my homework.

 They doesn't arrived on time.

 Did she eats dinner?
