

8

PAST CONTINUOUS TENSE

Formation

Types	Structures	Examples
Affirmative	Subject + was/were + verb (-ing) + object	She was walking to school at 8 AM.
Negative	Subject + was/were + not + verb (-ing) + obj	She wasn't walking to school at 8 AM.
Interrogative	Was/Were + subject + verb (-ing) + object?	Was she walking to school at 8 AM?

Uses

Uses	Examples
Actions in progress at a specific time in the past	- I was reading at 7 PM yesterday. - They were watching TV when I arrived.
We can use past continuous tense (as a longer / background action) with past simple (as a shorter action) which interrupted into it.	- The sun was shining when I woke up. - She was cooking when the phone rang.
Changing and developing situations	- She was getting bored. - It was getting cold in Quetta.

Examples

Subject	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
I	I was walking to school at 8 AM.	I wasn't walking to school at 8 AM.	Was I walking to school at 8 AM?
She / He / It / Ali	She was walking to school at 8 AM.	She wasn't walking to school at 8 AM.	Was she walking to school at 8 AM?
We / You / They	They were walking to school at 8 AM.	They weren't walking to school at 8 AM.	Were they walking to school at 8 AM?

8.1

Fill in the blanks with the past continuous form of the verb.

I _____ (study) when the phone rang.

They _____ (play) football at 5 PM yesterday.

She _____ (not sleep) during the movie.

Were you _____ (watch) TV at 8 PM?

The kids _____ (not run) in the park.

We _____ (travel) to Lahore when it started raining.

8.2

Rewrite the sentences as affirmatives.

She wasn't reading a book.

They weren't playing football.

He wasn't talking on the phone.

I wasn't doing my homework.

We weren't watching a movie.

8.3

Rewrite the sentences as negatives and interrogatives.

 She was walking to school.

 They were playing football in the park.

 He was studying for his exams.

 The kids were making noise.

 I was writing a story.

 We were eating dinner.

8.4 Correct the mistakes.

 She weren't walking to school.

 Were they plays football yesterday?

 He was study for his exams.

 I wasn't writing a letters.

 The kids were makes noise.
