

9

PRESENT PERFECT TENSE

Formation

Types	Structures	Examples
Affirmative	Subject + have/has + past participle + object	She has walked to school today.
Negative	Subject + have/has + not + past participle + object	She hasn't walked to school today.
Interrogative	Have/Has + subject + past participle + object?	Has she walked to school today?

Uses

Uses	Examples
When we have a present result of a past action ,we use present perfect.	- I have visited Lahore. - She has finished her homework. - He has lived here for five years. - They have gone to the library many times this month.

Examples

Subject	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
I	I have walked to school today.	I haven't walked to school today.	Have I walked to school today?
She / He / It/Ali	She has walked to school today.	She hasn't walked to school today.	Has she walked to school today?
We / You / They	They have walked to school today.	They haven't walked to school today.	Have they walked to school today?

9.1

Fill in the blanks with the present perfect form of the verb

I _____ (visit) that museum twice.

She _____ (not finish) her homework yet.

Have you _____ (see) that movie?

They _____ (eat) lunch already.

He _____ (not call) his friend today.

We _____ (live) in this city for 10 years.

9.2

Rewrite the sentences as affirmatives.

She hasn't finished her homework.

They haven't visited the museum.

He hasn't cleaned his room.

I haven't seen that movie.

We haven't met her before.

The cat hasn't caught any mice.

 My parents haven't gone to the market.

 You haven't done your project.

 It hasn't stopped raining.

 The children haven't eaten yet.

9.3 Rewrite the sentences as negatives.

 I have visited that museum.

 She has finished her homework.

 He has called his friend today.

 They have eaten lunch.

 We have lived in this city for 10 years.

 She has read this book already.

9.4

Rewrite the sentences as questions.

 Ali has bought a new car.

 She has finished her homework.

 Sarah and Sofia have scored 90% in Mid Term Exams.

 We have learnt tenses in English language class this week.

 We have lived in this city for 10 years.

 They have found their lost keys.

 He has just arrived at the airport.

 The children have played in the park all afternoon.

 She has visited Paris three times.

 We have already seen that movie.

9.5

Correct the mistakes

👉 He haven't finished his homework.

👉 Did you ever visited that place?

👉 They has eaten lunch already.

👉 She hasn't reads the book yet.

👉 Have you finish the project?

👉 I haven't saw this movie.
