

12 FUTURE CONTINUOUS TENSE

Formation

Types	Structures	Examples
Affirmative	Subject + will be + verb (-ing) + object	She will be walking to school at 8 AM.
Negative	Subject + will not (won't) be + verb (-ing) + object	She won't be walking to school at 8 AM.
Interrogative	Will + subject + be + verb (-ing) + object?	Will she be walking to school at 8 AM?

Uses

Uses	Examples
Actions in progress at a specific time in the future	- She will be studying at 10 AM tomorrow.
Polite inquiries about future plans	- Will you be using the car later?
Predicting ongoing future actions	- They will be watching the match when we arrive.
Changing and developing situations	She will be getting bored.

Examples

Subject	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
I	I will be walking to school at 8 AM.	I won't be walking to school at 8 AM.	Will I be walking to school at 8 AM?
She / He / It / Ali	She will be walking to school tomorrow.	She won't be walking to school tomorrow.	Will she be walking to school tomorrow?
We / You / They	They will be watching the game.	They won't be watching the game.	Will they be watching the game?

12.1

Fill in the blanks with the future continuous form of the verb.

 I _____ (watch) TV at 9 PM tonight.

 She _____ (work) tomorrow afternoon.

 Will they _____ (travel) to Lahore next week?

 We _____ (have) dinner at 8 PM.

 He _____ (play) football in the evening.

 The kids _____ (sleep) when we arrive.

12.2

Rewrite the sentences as negatives.

 She will be walking to school at 8 AM.

 They will be watching TV in the evening.

 The kids will be making noise.

 I will be writing a letter.

 We will be eating dinner.

 He will be studying for his exams.

12.3

Rewrite the sentences as interrogatives.

She will be reading a book at 8 AM.

They will be playing football in the evening.

He will be preparing for his exams.

The kids will be playing outside.

I will be sending an email.

We will be having lunch.

12.4

Rewrite the sentences as affirmatives.

She won't be working tomorrow.

They won't be staying at the hotel.

He won't be using the car.

I won't be waiting for you.

 We won't be attending the class.

12.5 Correct the mistakes.

 She will not be walks to school.

 Were they will be playing football?

 He will be study for his exams.

 I won't be writes a letter.

 The kids will makes noise.

 Will she be cooking dinner?
