

15

MODAL VERBS (MUST, SHOULD,) SEMI MODEL VERBS (HAVE TO, NEED TO, AND USED TO)Concept Explanation*Must (Inescapable Obligation)

Must" is used when something is absolutely necessary or compulsory.

Examples

-  You must wear a seatbelt in the car. (It's a rule.)
-  Students must do their homework. (It's required.)

Should (Escapable Obligation)

"Should" is used when something is recommended or advised, but not compulsory.

Examples

-  You should eat vegetables to stay healthy. (It's a good idea, but you can choose not to.)
-  You should bring a jacket; it might be cold. (It's advice, not a rule.)

Examples to Compare Must and Should

-  Must: You must pray five times a day. (Religious obligation.)
Should: You should recite a few extra supplications. Good practice.)
-  Must: Teachers must mark attendance daily. (Duty.)
Should: Teachers should encourage students to ask questions. (Advice.)

Simple Rules

 Use must for rules or duties.

 Use should for advice or suggestions

15.1 Complete the sentences with must or should.

 You _____ respect your elders.

 We _____ cross the road only at the zebra crossing.

 You _____ drink more water to stay hydrated.

 Students _____ complete their assignments on time.

 You _____ bring an umbrella; it might rain today.

15.2 Read the sentences below and write whether the sentence is about "Inescapable Obligation" or "Escapable Obligation":

 You must be quiet in the library.

 You should visit your grandparents this weekend.

 Drivers must stop at a red light.

 You should help your friend with homework.

15.3 Write 2 sentences using must and 2 sentences using should for the following topics.

 Helping others

 Personal hygiene

15.4 Rewrite the sentences below with the correct modal verb:

 You must eat ice cream before dinner.

 Students should bring their school ID every day.

 You must watch cartoons before finishing your homework.

 Everyone should follow the traffic signals.

Concept Explanation

Mustn't (Prohibition)

"Mustn't" is used to show that something is not allowed. It's a strong rule or law.

Examples

 You mustn't talk during the exam. (It's not allowed.)

 People mustn't litter in the park. (It's forbidden.)

Don't Have To (No Obligation)

Definition

"Don't have to" is used to show that something is not necessary. It's optional.

Examples

-  You don't have to bring your lunch today; the school is providing it. (It's not necessary.)
-  We don't have to wear uniforms on Sports Day. (It's not required.)

Simple Rules

-  Use mustn't for things you are not allowed to do.
-  Use don't have to for things that are optional or not necessary

Examples to Compare Mustn't and Don't Have To

-  Mustn't: You mustn't run in the classroom. (It's against the rules.)
Don't Have To: You don't have to run in the race if you don't want to. (It's your choice.)
-  Mustn't: You mustn't eat food in the library. (It's forbidden.)
Don't Have To: You don't have to bring snacks to school; the canteen is open. (It's not necessary.)

Examples • Situation: In the classroom

-  You mustn't talk when the teacher is speaking.
-  You don't have to bring your art supplies today.

15.5 Choose the correct modal (mustn't or don't have to).

-  You _____ touch the paintings in the museum.
-  We _____ bring our books tomorrow; it's a free reading day.
-  Students _____ use mobile phones during the class.
-  You _____ wake up early on Sunday if you don't want to.
-  People _____ smoke in public places.

15.6 Rewrite the sentences using the correct modal verb (mustn't or don't have to):

 You are not allowed to cross the road without looking.

 It's optional to wear a tie for the school event.

 Students are not allowed to write on the desks.

 It's not necessary to submit the form today.

Comprehensive Notes on Semi-Modals: Have to, Need to, Used to

Have To (Obligation)

Definition

"Have to" expresses obligation or something necessary, often due to rules or external circumstances.

Positive form

Example: I have to complete my homework.
(It's required.)

Negative form

"Don't have to" indicates there is no obligation or necessity.

Example: You don't have to wake up early on Sunday.
(It's optional.)

Questions

Use "Do/Does" to ask about obligation.

Example: Do we have to bring our books?

Need to (Necessity)

"Need to" expresses something important or necessary.

Positive form

I need to complete my homework. (It's required.)

Negative form

"Don't need to" indicates there is no obligation or necessity.

Example: You don't need to wake up early on Sunday.
(It's optional.)

Questions

Use "Do/Does" to ask about obligation.

Example: Do we need to bring our books?

Don't Need To

Common in American and informal English.

Always used with "do/does/did."

Example: You don't need to stay late.

Needn't

Common in British and formal English.

Used without auxiliary verbs.

Example: You needn't stay late.

Used To (Past Habits or Actions)

"Used to" describes past habits or situations that no longer occur.

Positive form

Example: I used to play cricket after school.

Negative form

"Didn't use to" indicates something that was not a habit in the past.

Example: I didn't use to like spinach when I was younger.

Questions

Use "Did" to ask about past habits.

Example: Did you use to play football?

Comparison Table for Semi-Modals

Semi-Modal	Positive	Negative	Question
Have to	I have to go to school.	I don't have to go to school.	Do I have to go to school?
Need to	I need to finish my work.	I don't need to finish my work.	Do I need to finish my work?
Needn't	You needn't worry about this.	(No separate negative form; implied)	Need we worry about this?
Used to	I used to live in Lahore.	I didn't use to live in Lahore.	Did you use to live in Lahore?

Examples with Negatives and Questions

Have to

- 👉 Positive: You have to study for the test.
- 👉 Negative: You don't have to study if you already know the material.
- 👉 Question: Do we have to wear uniforms on Monday?

Need to

- 👉 Positive: You need to drink water regularly.
- 👉 Negative: You don't need to bring snacks today.
- 👉 Negative (with Needn't): You needn't bring snacks today.

 Question: Do I need to call him now?

Used to

 Positive: I used to visit my grandparents every weekend.

 Negative: I didn't use to eat vegetables when I was younger.

 Question: Did you use to go to this school?

15.7 Choose the correct form (have to, don't have to, need to, needn't, used to, didn't use to):

 I _____ wake up early on weekends; it's a holiday.

 You _____ bring your notebook to the meeting.
(It's not necessary.)

 We _____ drink water every day to stay healthy.

 She _____ play in the park after school when she was younger.

 _____ you _____ complete the assignment by tomorrow?

15.8 Rewrite each sentence using a different form:

 It's necessary for Ali to attend the meeting.
(Use: Have to)

 Sana always read books when she was younger.
(Use: Used to)

 It's not necessary to bring snacks to the picnic.
(Use: Needn't)

 Is it important to finish this now?
(Use: Need to)

Activity: Group Roleplay

- Divide the class into groups and give them scenarios. Each group must create sentences using all semi-modal forms.
- Scenario 1: School Rules
 - Positive: "We have to attend assembly every day."
 - Negative: "We don't have to bring our art supplies today."
 - Question: "Do we have to wear black shoes?"
- Scenario 2: Past Memories
 - Positive: "I used to climb trees with my friends."
 - Negative: "I didn't use to like reading books."
 - Question: "Did you use to play cricket?"