

16 QUESTION WORDS

What or Which? Whose or Who's?

We use which when choosing between a small number of things, people, or places.

For Example:

 Which is your car, black or blue?

 Which student is your best friend?

 Which city do you want to visit?

We use what when choosing between a large number of things, people, or places.

For Example:

 What sort of cars do you like?

 What do you want to be when you grow up?

 What country would you like to visit?

We use whose for questions about possession.

Form:

Whose (noun) + be(is/am/are) + extra words?

For Example:

 Whose jacket is that?

 Whose are these?

Who's sounds the same as whose but has a different meaning.

For Example:

 Who's that? (Who is that?)

 Who's your favourite singer? (Who is your favourite singer?)

Using nouns or without nouns

We can use what, which, or whose with or without a noun.

For Example:

 Whose computer did you use?
