

UNIT 10

CONJUNCTIONS

UNIT 10 CONJUNCTIONS

A conjunction is a linking word that connects words, or sentences. Conjunctions make sentences smoother and easier to understand.

Conjunction	Use	Example
And	Adds similar ideas or combines things.	I like apples and oranges.
But	Shows contrast or difference.	It was sunny but it was cold.
Or	Offers a choice between options.	Would you like tea or coffee?
Because	Explains the reason for something.	I stayed home because it was raining.
So	Shows the result of something.	It was raining so I stayed home.
When	Refers to time or a specific moment.	Call me when you reach school.
While	Refers to two actions happening at the same time.	She was singing while he was playing the guitar.
Although	Shows contrast despite a condition.	Although it was late, I stayed awake.
Unless	Indicates a condition (if not).	You cannot go out unless you finish homework.
Yet	Adds contrast similar to "but."	It was late, yet he kept working.

EXERCISES

Exercise: 1

Complete the sentences by choosing the correct conjunction (unless, but, or, and, so, when, although, while, because, yet).

- 1) I like to play football _____ watch movies.
- 2) She wanted to go out, _____ it was raining heavily.
- 3) You can have tea _____ coffee with your breakfast.
- 4) He stayed at home _____ he was feeling unwell.
- 5) I worked hard on my project, _____ I finished it on time.
- 6) I will call you _____ I arrive at the airport.
- 7) They were laughing _____ watching a funny movie.
- 8) _____ it was cold, we decided to go for a walk.
- 9) You can't enter the room _____ you have permission.
- 10) He wanted to win the race, _____ he didn't practise enough.

Exercise: 2

Match the sentences with the correct conjunctions.

Part A

I like chocolate ☐

You can stay home ☐

He missed the bus ☐

I will help you ☐

She was reading ☐

You can have tea ☐

The exam was tough, ☐

You can't enter the library ☐

Part B

☐ or go out with your friends.

☐ when you ask me.

☐ or coffee.

☐ yet she passed with flying colors.

☐ but I don't eat it often.

☐ so he took a taxi.

☐ unless you show your ID card.

☐ while he was watching TV.

Exercise: 3

Use the appropriate conjunctions to join the sentences.

1) I wanted to visit the museum. It was closed.

2) He was running late. He still stopped to help.

3) She loves pizza. She doesn't like burgers.

4) We can go to the park. We can visit the zoo.

5) He stayed up all night. He needed to finish his assignment.

6) She was cooking dinner. The phone rang.

7) The students worked hard. They completed the project on time.

8) You can't join the trip. You submit the permission slip.

9) I enjoy reading books. I also like writing stories.

10) She continued practising. It was late at night.
