UNIT 15 PUNCTUATION MARKS

What Are Punctuation Marks?

Punctuation marks help us organize our writing and make it easier to understand. They guide the reader on where to pause, stop, or emphasize certain parts of the sentence. Let's learn about the common punctuation marks:

1) Full Stop (.)

- Use: To end a sentence.
- Examples:
 - I like reading books.
 - The cat is sleeping.
 - She is coming tomorrow.

2) Comma (,)

- Use: To separate items in a list or clauses in a sentence.
- Examples:
 - I bought apples, bananas, oranges, and grapes.
 - If it rains, we will stay inside.

3) Question Mark (?)

- Use: To ask a question.
- Examples:
 - What is your name?
 - Can you help me?
 - Where is the library?

4) Exclamation Mark (!)

- Use: To show strong feelings like excitement, surprise, or anger.
- Examples:
 - Wow! That's amazing!
 - Be careful!
 - What a beautiful day!

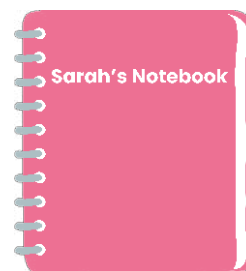

5) Apostrophe (')

● Use: To show possession or a contraction.

● Examples:

- Possession: This is Sarah's book.
- Contraction: It's (it is) raining outside.

6) Inverted commas ("")

● Use: To show direct quote or to emphasize something.

● Examples:

- Quote: She said, "How are you?"
- Emphasis: The politician said his opponent was "corrupt".
