UNIT 17 COMPREHENSIONS

Passage 1 The Journey of Water

Water is one of the most important natural resources on Earth. It covers about 70% of our planet, but only a small amount is fresh and drinkable. Water goes through a continuous cycle. First, it evaporates from rivers, lakes, and oceans due to the heat of the sun. The vapour rises into the sky, where it cools and forms clouds. These clouds eventually release the water as rain, bringing fresh water back to the land. This cycle is called the water cycle, and it is vital for all living things.

Questions

- 1) What percentage of the Earth is covered in water?
- 2) What happens to water when the sun heats it?
- 3) How do clouds form?
- 4) What is the water cycle, and why is it important?

Passage 2 The Life of a Honeybee

Honeybees are small but very hardworking insects. They live in groups called colonies, which can have thousands of bees. Each bee in the colony has a specific job. The queen bee's job is to lay eggs, while the worker bees gather nectar from flowers. They bring this nectar back to the hive and turn it into honey. Honeybees communicate with each other through a special dance to tell others where flowers are. Without honeybees, many plants would not be able to grow, as they help in pollination.

Questions

- 1) What is a group of bees called?
- 2) What is the queen bee's main job?
- 3) How do worker bees communicate with each other?
- 4) Why are honeybees important for plants?

Passage 3 The Story of the Mango Tree

Once upon a time, a farmer planted a tiny mango seed in his garden. Every day, he watered the seed and took care of it. Slowly, the seed grew into a small plant and then into a tall tree. After several years, the tree produced its first sweet, juicy mangoes. The farmer shared the mangoes with his family and friends. Everyone praised the farmer for his hard work. From that day on, the mango tree continued to give delicious fruit every year, reminding the farmer that patience and care can lead to great rewards.

Questions

- 1) What did the farmer plant in his garden?
- 2) How did the farmer take care of the seed?
- 3) What did the tree produce after several years?
- 4) What lesson did the farmer learn from the mango tree?

Passage 4 The Brave Little Bird

Once, there was a little bird who lived in a small nest high up in a tree. The bird was afraid of flying. Every day, it would watch other birds soar through the sky but was too scared to try itself. One day, the wind blew strongly, and the little bird's nest began to shake. The bird had no choice to jump out of the nest. To its surprise, when it flapped its wings, it started to fly! The bird realized that flying wasn't so scary after all, and from that day on, it flew happily with the other birds.

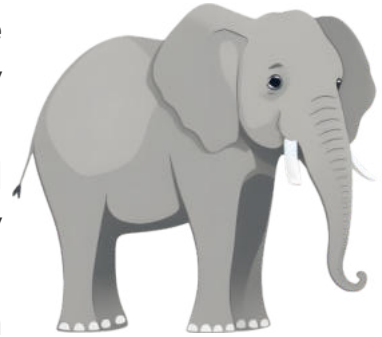

Questions

- 1) Where did the little bird live?
- 2) Why was the little bird afraid?
- 3) What happened when the wind blew?
- 4) What lesson did the little bird learn in the end?

Passage 5 The Elephant's Strength

Elephants are known for their strength and size. They are the largest land animals on Earth. Despite their size, elephants are gentle creatures. They use their trunks to lift heavy objects, drink water, and even pick up small things like berries. Elephants live in herds, and they take care of each other. If a baby elephant is in danger, the entire herd will protect it. Their strength and unity make them one of the most respected animals in the jungle.

Questions

- 1) What are elephants known for?
- 2) How do elephants use their trunks?
- 3) What happens if a baby elephant is in danger?
- 4) Why are elephants respected in the jungle?

Passage 6 A Day at the Beach

Ali and his family decided to spend a day at the beach. The sun was shining, and the sky was clear. Ali built a big sandcastle, while his little sister collected seashells along the shore. The family enjoyed the picnic with sandwiches and cold drinks. Later, they all went for a swim in the cool, refreshing water. As the sun began to set, Ali looked at the beautiful colours in the sky and thought it was the perfect way to end a wonderful day.

Questions

- 1) Where did Ali and his family spend the day?
- 2) What did Ali do at the beach?
- 3) What did the family eat for their picnic?
- 4) What did Ali think about the sunset?

Passage 7 The Value of Hard Work

There was a young boy named Ahmad who dreamed of becoming a great cricket player. Every day, after school, he would practise in the park for hours. At first, he wasn't very good, but he didn't give up. His friends teased him, but Ahmad kept practising. Over time, his skills improved, and he was finally selected for the school cricket team. Ahmad's hard work paid off, and he became the best player on the team.

Questions

- 1) What was Ahmad's dream?
