

UNIT 1

ESSENTIAL
STATIVE VERBS:
"TO BE," "HAS/HAVE,"
AND "BEEN"

Stative Verbs

Stative verbs describe a state or a condition rather than an action. In this chapter, we will focus on:

1. The verb "to be" in its stative use to describe conditions, and existence of somebody or something.
2. The verbs "has", "have" and "had" to show illness, possession relationships and nature.
3. The verb "been" to describe a past state which also exists in the present.

Note: Past state (was/were) + present state (is/am/are) = Present perfect state (been)

Below are the examples of stative verbs like is, am, are, was, were, will be, has, have, had, has been, have been, had been, in affirmative, negative, and question forms:

1. IS/AM/ARE

● Affirmative:

- She is a doctor.
- I am happy.
- They are tired.

● Negative:

- She is not (isn't) a doctor.
- I am not happy.
- They are not (aren't) tired.

● Questions:

- Is she a doctor?
- Am I happy?
- Are they tired?

2. WAS/WERE

● Affirmative:

- He was at the party.
- We were late.

● Negative:

- He was not (wasn't) at the party.
- We were not (weren't) late.

● Questions:

- Was he at the party?
- Were we late?

3. WILL BE

● Affirmative:

- She will be there soon.
- I will be happy to help.

● Negative:

- She will not (won't) be there soon.
- I will not (won't) be happy to help.

● Questions:

- Will she be there soon?
- Will I be happy to help?

4. HAS/HAVE/HAD

● Affirmative:

- She has a car.
- They have an idea.
- I had a wonderful time.

● Negative:

- She does not (doesn't) have a car.
- They do not (don't) have an idea.
- I did not (didn't) have a wonderful time.

● Questions:

- Does she have a car?
- Do they have an idea?
- Did I have a wonderful time?

5. HAS BEEN/HAVE BEEN/HAD BEEN/HAS HAD/HAVE HAD/HAD HAD

● Affirmative:

- She has been hard-working.
- They have been busy.
- He has had a rabbit.
- She had had a difficult time before the success.

● Negative:

- She has not (hasn't) been hard-working.
- They have not (haven't) been busy.
- He has not (hasn't) had a rabbit.
- She had not (hadn't) had a difficult time before the success.

● Questions:

- Has she been hard-working?
- Have they been busy?
- Has he had a rabbit?
- Had she had a difficult time before the success?

States in Different Tenses

Present states	She is happy. She isn't happy. Is she happy?	She has a pet. She doesn't have a pet. Does she have a pet?
Past states	She was happy. She wasn't happy. Was she happy?	She had a pet. She didn't have a pet. Did she have a pet?
Future states	She will be happy. She won't be happy. Will she be happy?	She will have a pet. She won't have a pet. Will she have a pet?
Present perfect states	She has been happy. She hasn't been happy. Has she been happy?	She has had a pet. She hasn't had a pet. Has she had a pet?

Past perfect states

She had been happy.
She hadn't been happy.
Had she been happy?

She had had a pet.
She hadn't had a pet.
Had she had a pet?

Future perfect

She will have been happy.
She won't have been happy.
Will she have been happy?

She will have had fever.
She won't have had fever.
Will she have had fever?

EXERCISES

Exercise: 1

Complete the sentences with is/am/are.

1. I _____ from Lahore. (affirmative)
2. She _____ not feeling well today. (negative)
3. _____ they your classmates? (question)
4. We _____ not ready for the test. (negative)
5. He _____ very tall. (affirmative)
6. _____ you my friend? (question)
7. They _____ not in the park now. (negative)
8. My father _____ a doctor. (affirmative)
9. _____ she not at school today? (negative question)
10. The weather _____ beautiful today. (affirmative)

Exercise: 2

Complete the sentences using has or have to show possession. Choose the correct form based on the subject.

1. I _____ a new bicycle.
2. She _____ a lot of books in her bag.
3. My friend _____ a pet dog.
4. We _____ a big house in Karachi.
5. He _____ two sisters.

6. The teacher _____ a red pen.

Exercise: 3

Fill in the blanks using has/have + been. Use the correct form according to the subject.

1. I _____ very happy today.
2. She _____ not _____ at school this week.
3. _____ he _____ tired lately?
4. We _____ best friends since Class 2.
5. They _____ not _____ in a good mood.
6. _____ you ever _____ in Karachi?
7. My father _____ busy this month.
8. The children _____ not _____ noisy today.
9. _____ your sister _____ sick recently?
10. Why _____ you not _____ at home?

Exercise: 4

Complete the sentences with the correct form of "had" for possession.

1. I _____ a new book last week. (affirmative)
2. He _____ a big birthday party last year. (affirmative)
3. We _____ not enough time to finish the project.
(negative)
4. _____ you _____ a bicycle when you were younger? (question)
5. _____ your parents _____ a car when they were young? (negative question)
6. My brother _____ a soccer ball last month.
(affirmative)

Exercise: 5

Complete each sentence with the correct form of had or had had in affirmative, negative, or question form. Focus on states and conditions, not actions.

- 1) By the time we moved, they _____ a big house for many years. (Affirmative)
- 2) She _____ enough confidence to speak in public. (Negative)
- 3) _____ they _____ any doubts about the decision? (Question)
- 4) My grandfather _____ a strong memory before he grew older. (Affirmative)
- 5) We _____ a proper understanding of the topic before the teacher explained it. (Negative)
- 6) _____ you _____ any concerns about the plan? (Question)
- 7) I _____ a deep fear of heights when I was younger. (Affirmative)
- 8) They _____ much knowledge about computers in the past. (Negative)
- 9) The village _____ a peaceful environment before the new roads were built. (Affirmative)
- 10) _____ she _____ any interest in history before taking this class? (Question)