COMPOSITIONS

UNIT 14 COMPOSITION

1. Personal Narrative Writing

Personal narrative writing is a type of writing where you share a real-life experience, focusing on your thoughts, feelings, and the lessons you learned.

Structure:

1. Introduction: Start with an attention-grabbing sentence and introduce the experience.
2. Body: Describe the event in detail, focusing on your thoughts, feelings, and actions.
3. Conclusion: Reflect on what you learned or how the experience affected you.

Example: A Memorable Independence Day

On the morning of August 14th, I woke up to the sound of patriotic songs playing outside. The streets were decorated with green and white flags. My family and I joined a community celebration where children sang national songs, and everyone shared snacks. The highlight of my day was when I gave a small speech about Quaid-e-Azam's vision for Pakistan. Standing in front of the crowd made me nervous, but their claps made me proud. That day, I felt truly connected to my country, and it reminded me of the sacrifices made for our freedom.

Writing Assignment Topics

1. A Memorable Independence Day

Write about how you celebrated Independence Day/ Defence Day of Pakistan and what it means to you.

2. A Time I Helped the Environment

Describe a time when you did something to protect nature, like planting a tree or cleaning your neighbourhood.

2. Descriptive Writing

Descriptive writing is a type of writing where you describe a person, place, event, or object using vivid details that appeal to the senses.

Structure:

1. Introduction: State what you are describing and why it is significant.
2. Body: Use sensory details (sight, sound, smell, touch, taste) to describe the subject.
3. Conclusion: Summarize your description and share why it matters to you.

Tip: Use adjectives and sensory details (sight, sound, smell, taste, touch) to create a vivid description and make the reader feel like they are experiencing it.

Example: The Classroom of My Dreams

When I walk into my dream classroom, I see bright posters with inspiring quotes and colourful charts hanging on the walls. The air smells fresh, and sunlight streams through big windows, making the room cheerful. Each desk has a small drawer for supplies, and the teacher's desk is neatly organized with books and gadgets. In one corner, there's a reading nook with beanbags and shelves full of books. This classroom feels like a second home, a place where learning is fun and creativity flows.
