

UNIT 01

THE VOICE OF GOD (POEM)

WORDS AND MEANING

S. #	Words	Meaning in English	Meaning in Urdu
1.	Sought	Past tense of "seek", To search, To desire	تلاش کیا
2.	Climbed	Ascended, Scaled	چڑھا
3.	Topmost	Highest, Uppermost	سب سے اوپر
4.	Steeple	The Tallest part of a church	گرجا گھر
5.	Declare	State, Announce, Make known	اعلان کرنا
6.	Dwell	Reside, Live	رہائش کرنا
7.	People	Population, Community	لوگ

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q.1: Who is the author of the poem "The Voice of God," and what can you tell us about the poet?

Ans: The poem "The Voice of God" was written by "Louis I Newman (1893-1972)," an American poet, born in Providence, Rhode Island (USA), He pursued education at Brown University and later taught at Columbia University after completing his doctorate. He authored several books on religious subjects, reflecting his strong religious inclination.

Q.2: Why did the author climb the steeple?

Ans: The poet climbed the steeple because he believed that God's presence could be felt more strongly in elevated places. By ascending to the steeple, he aimed to attain proximity to God and listen to His voice.

Q.3: Why did God instruct him to descend?

Ans: God told him to come down to emphasize that God is not only in the heavens but also present everywhere. The poet suggests that serving and helping those who are suffering is a way to find God. This highlights the idea that anyone, regardless of status, can connect with God through compassionate actions.

Q.4: In the line "I dwell among the people," what does this mean in the context of the poem "The Voice of God"?

Ans: In the poem "The Voice of God," this line signifies that despite the poet's attempt to get closer to God by climbing the steeple, he comes to realize that God's presence is found among ordinary people. It teaches the poet that serving humanity is a way to connect with God.

Q.5: Express the poem's message in your own words.

Ans: Through the poem "The Voice of God," the poet conveys the idea that God is omnipresent and can be found everywhere. To make God happy, we should serve others and make their lives better.

Q.6: What is the central idea of this poem?

Ans: The central theme of "The Voice of God" is that God's presence is all-encompassing. The poem highlights the importance of helping and serving others, as this is a way to come closer to God.

Q.7: How would you describe the genre of this poem?

Ans: This poem falls under the category of religious and moral poetry. It explores fundamental virtues such as compassion, harmony, and affection. It delves into the profound bond between God and those who follow His teachings.

Q.8: What is the poet's intended message for us?

Ans: The poet's message is for us to foster love and compassion among ourselves. The poet urges us to recognize the divine essence within each individual, as a means to draw nearer to God. The poem advocates that serving humanity is akin to serving God.