

CHAPTER 10

PAKISTAN - A- WELFARE STATE

1. MEANING OF A WELFARE STATE

DEFINITION AND PURPOSE

A Welfare State is a concept where the government is responsible for the well-being of its citizens. This means that the government provides essential services like healthcare, education, and financial support to ensure that everyone has a decent standard of living, especially those who cannot support themselves.

Government's Role: In such a state, the government plays a key role in the economy to regulate and provide social services. The idea is to create a more equal society where the wealth is distributed fairly and the opportunity for a good life is available to all, not just a few.

2. DUTIES OF A WELFARE STATE

SOCIAL SERVICES AND SUPPORT

The duties of a Welfare State include offering services such as public education, healthcare, and support for the elderly and those who are out of work. The government also works to protect children and provide assistance to families in need.

ECONOMIC EQUITY AND PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITY

The aim is to reduce the gap between the rich and the poor and ensure an equitable distribution of wealth. The state must make sure that its citizens do not suffer from poverty and can enjoy a standard of life that allows dignity and opportunity.

3. CONCEPT OF AN ISLAMIC WELFARE STATE

ISLAMIC PRINCIPLES IN GOVERNANCE

An Islamic Welfare State is based on the principles of Islam, which guide how the government should care for its citizens. It's not just about meeting physical needs but also addressing spiritual well-being, ensuring justice, and providing for the poor and needy according to Islamic teachings.

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT

The state operates on the concepts of Zakat (charitable giving) and Ummah (community), playing a strong role in taking care of its people and ensuring everyone has what they need to live a fulfilling life, both materially and spiritually.

4. PAKISTAN'S NATIONAL GOALS

ASPIRATIONS AND DEVELOPMENT

Pakistan's national goals include building a strong economy, reducing poverty, improving health and education for everyone, and maintaining peace within and beyond its borders. These goals aim to provide a better future for all Pakistanis.

UNITY AND PROGRESS

Other important objectives are to promote national unity, protect the country's cultural heritage, and ensure that all citizens can participate fully in the social and economic life of the nation. By working towards these goals, Pakistan strives to become a more prosperous and cohesive society.

5. SELF-SUFFICIENCY IN FOOD

IMPORTANCE OF FOOD SECURITY

Being self-sufficient in food means that a country can grow enough food to feed its people without relying on imports. This is important because it helps ensure that everyone has enough to eat, even if international trade is disrupted or food prices rise sharply.

ECONOMIC STABILITY AND HEALTH country's economy by reducing the need to spend foreign currency on imports, and it can help make food cheaper for local consumers. Moreover, it ensures that the nation can provide healthy and culturally appropriate food for all its people.

6. NECESSITY OF WORLD PEACE

FOUNDATION FOR DEVELOPMENT Peace in the world is necessary because it creates the environment needed for countries to develop. When countries are at peace, they can trade with each other, their people can travel and learn from one another, and resources can be used for improving life rather than fighting wars.

GLOBAL HARMONY AND PROSPERITY protect the environment, and build a sense of global community where countries help each other. It's important for the future of humanity that we find ways to settle our differences peacefully and work together for the good of all.

7. ROLE OF AN INDIVIDUAL IN A WELFARE STATE

CITIZENS' RESPONSIBILITIES Every person has a role to play. Citizens are expected to contribute to society by working, paying taxes, and helping others. They also have a responsibility to make the most of the opportunities provided by the state, like education and healthcare.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND PARTICIPATION local communities and the democratic process. This includes voting in elections, volunteering, and making sure that their voices are heard on issues that matter to them. Everyone's participation is important to make a Welfare State work well.

8. UNIVERSAL EDUCATION EFFORTS

GOVERNMENT INITIATIVES Pakistan has taken several steps toward achieving universal education. These include making primary education free and compulsory for all children, setting up more schools, and providing training and resources for teachers.

EDUCATIONAL REFORMS to improve the quality of education and make it relevant to the needs of the job market. The government aims to reduce the number of children who drop out of school and to make sure that education is accessible to girls as well as boys, rural as well as urban dwellers.
