EXERCISE 4- POST READING

Q1. Why was the Quaid feeling honoured while addressing the first constituent Assembly?

Ans: Jinnah, the founder of Pakistan, was greatly happy and pleased for his great achievement. It was surely a moment of great honour for him to give his presidential address on August 11, 1947. He felt honoured for guiding the policy makers and the nation to a path of dignity and glory. He was also feeling honoured for the fulfillment of his great task.

Pakistan had almost appeared on the world map and it was only three days before the announcement of this new state. He also expressed his gratitude to the people for their support and co-operation as well.

Q2. Which is the greatest curse according to the Quaid-e-Azam?

Ans: August 11, 1947 was a historical day of inauguration of the constituent assembly of Pakistan. The Quaid-e-Azam pointed out that there are many social evils prevailing in the Indian society in his presidential address. He mentioned bribery, Corruption, jobbery, nepotism and black marketing. These evils have undermined the society to great extent. According to this great leader the biggest of all these evils is corruption and bribery.

Q3. What was the Quaid-e-Azam's vision about religious freedom?

Ans: The Quaid-e-Azam strongly believed in religious freedom for all citizens. He elaborated categorically that everyone is religiously free in Pakistan. The Hindus are free to go to their temples. The Muslims can worship in their mosques freely. The Christians are also free to go to their churches. He emphasized complete religious freedom for all, reminding us the teachings of the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

Q4. According to the Quaid-e-Azam, what lesson should we learn?

Ans: According to the Quaid-e-Azam, we should learn the lesson that no nation or power can hold other nations in subjection. So the religious freedom of a person must be respected. There should be no interference in the religion of another community. We should behave with them irrespective of caste, creed, and religion. Following Quaid's guidelines is a must to survive and flourish in today's world.

Q5. How far are the key ideas of the Quaid-e-Azam, applicable in the present scenario?

Ans: The key ideas of the Quaid-e-Azam are highly applicable to the present scenario. In the present scenario corruption, jobbery, nepotism and bribery are at their pinnacle. People with different caste, creed and religion hate each other. The prejudiced behaviour of the people is prevalent in the society. It is completely justified to say that the key ideas of the Quaid-e-Azam's speech are highly applicable even in the present scenario.

Q6. How can we make Pakistan prosperous in the light of the Quaid-e-Azam's vision?

Ans: We can make Pakistan prosperous and invincible by acting upon the advice given by the Quaid-e-Azam. If we do our duties honestly, we can make our motherland prosperous. We should try our level best by eradicating the curses of society. These curses are corruption, bribery, jobbery, black marketing and nepotism. We should pay respect to each other irrespective of creed, colour, caste and religion. We should also not interfere in the religious freedom of any person. Everyone is free and equal citizen of this Islamic state of Pakistan.

Q7. "I shall always be guided by the principles of Justice and fair play without any political language, prejudice and ill-will." Elaborate these words.

Ans: The inaugural of Pakistan's first constituent assembly was a red letter day in the history. It was on this day that the Quaid said these golden words. Here the Quaid categorically states that he will seek guidance from these guiding principles of justice and fair-play. This clearly shows his sincerity, justice and well-being for others. He hated discrimination among the people due to caste, creed, religion or language. He strictly believed in equal rights for all the citizens of Pakistan.
