

7. CHOOSING CAREER

EXERCISE 1- POST READING

Q.1: What are dominant theme of the letter?

Answer: This letter is about career counselling. The letter explains the strategies, method and techniques to adopt a better profession. Appropriate selection relevant to his field is very important because random selection can affect his whole life. The career expert doesn't mention any specific profession as it is and must be a person's own decision keeping in view its pros and cons. Instead of mentioning any specific career, the career expert has shared valuable suggestions and steps that if taken into consideration, are really helpful in career selection.

Q.2: Why does not the career expert mention any specific profession as career?

Answer: Career Counseling is a process that will help you to know and understand yourself and the world of work in order to make career, educational, and life decisions. The career expert doesn't mention any specific profession as it is and must be a person's own decision keeping in view its pros and cons. Instead of mentioning any specific career, the career expert has shared valuable suggestions and steps that if taken into consideration, are really helpful in career selection. The goal of Career Counseling is to not only help you make the decisions you need to make now, but to give you the knowledge and skills you need to make future career and life decisions.

Q.3: Why is the decision of choice of career considered the toughest? Give examples from the text of the letter.

Answer: The decision of choice of career considered the toughest due to a number of reasons. At the first place, selecting the right career is not an easy task. At times it happens that the career for which we spend too much of our time and energy ends up by giving us displeasure if it does not meet our expectations either with respect to money or mental satisfaction. Career selection is something that is beyond personal preference. The person should consider other aspects. Hence, the long list of prerequisites for making a decision of career selection makes it one of the difficult decision to be taken by someone in life.

Q.4: What is self-assessment? How far is it helpful in the choice of career?

Answer: Self-assessment is the process of exploring and evaluating yourself (or your skills, abilities, traits, personality, or performance). It also means to know one's skills and aptitude for a career. If a person assesses himself critically and thoroughly, then this paves a way to great job for him. Self-assessment and retrospection is fundamental to career development.

Q.5: Why should a person choose a career that interest him?

Answer: Career interests are your preferences regarding work activities and environments. Interest in combination with hard work is the key to success. It is the interest of a person which makes him determined to do anything. With interest, one can attain impossible targets. That's why it has strongly been recommended by the experts that one must choose the career in which he has the interest. Aligning your career with your interests presents several benefits, for example, job satisfaction, motivation, career success, personal identity etc.
