

SENTENCE STRUCTURES

Sentences can be classified into three main types based on their structure.

Types

1. Simple Sentence: One independent clause.

– Example: I like reading books.

2. Compound Sentence: Two or more independent clauses joined by a conjunction.

– Example: I like reading books, and my sister likes watching movies.

3. Complex Sentence: One independent clause and one or more dependent clauses.

– Example: I went to the store because I needed milk.

Examples

1. Simple: She sings beautifully.

2. Compound: I wanted to go to the beach, but it was raining.

3. Complex: Although it was raining, I went for a walk.

Practice Exercises

Exercise 1 Identify the sentence type

1. I love playing soccer.
2. I wanted to go, but I was tired.
3. Because it was late, I went home.
4. She studies hard, and she gets good grades.
5. The book is interesting.
6. Although it was cold, we went swimming.
7. I like reading, and my brother likes writing.
8. When the bell rang, the students left.
9. The movie was boring.
10. I went to the store because I needed groceries.

Exercise 2 Change the sentence type

1. Change "I like ice cream" to compound.
2. Change "I went to the store, and I bought milk" to simple.
3. Change "Because it was raining, I stayed home" to compound.
4. Change "She sings beautifully" to complex.
5. Change "I wanted to go, but I was tired" to simple.
6. Change "The book is interesting" to complex.
7. Change "I like reading, and my brother likes writing" to simple.
8. Change "When the bell rang, the students left" to compound.
9. Change "The movie was boring" to complex.
10. Change "I went to the store because I needed milk" to compound.

Exercise 3 Create sentences

1. Write a simple sentence about a pet.
2. Write a compound sentence about hobbies.
3. Write a complex sentence about a decision.
4. Write a simple sentence about a favorite food.

5. Write a compound sentence about travel plans.
6. Write a complex sentence about a challenge.
7. Write a simple sentence about a book.
8. Write a compound sentence about friends.
9. Write a complex sentence about a goal.
10. Write a simple sentence about a place.