QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q.1: When and where was our beloved Prophet Muhammad () born? Which tribe/family did he belong to?

Ans: Prophet Muhammad () was born in 571 A.D. (some historians say 570 A.D.) in Makkah, Saudi Arabia. He belonged to the noble family of Quraish.

Q.2: What was the belief of the Quraish tribe? How did the Holy Prophet () address them?

Ans: The Quraish worshiped idols and did not believe in one God. The Holy Prophet () urged them to abandon their false gods and proclaimed himself as the Prophet of Allah. He invited them to accept Islam and worship the one true God.

Q.3: How did the Quraish react to the preaching of the Holy Prophet ()? Why did they oppose him?

Ans: The Quraish opposed the new faith brought by the Holy Prophet () and most of them refused to accept Islam. They saw his message as a threat to their gods and ancestors, as they were committed to idol worship and did not believe in the concept of one God.

Q.4(a): Why did the Holy Prophet () advise the believers to migrate to Madina?

Ans: Due to intense opposition and persecution in Makkah, the Holy Prophet () instructed the believers to migrate to Yathrib (later known as Madina). The believers faced immense difficulties and hardships in Makkah, and the migration provided them with a safer environment to practice their faith.

Q.4(b): Why did Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) migrate to Madina?

Ans: As more people embraced Islam and the opposition from the Quraish intensified, Prophet Muhammad () faced threats to his life. When he received positive signals from Yathrib, he decided to migrate there in order to protect himself and spread the message of Islam in a more welcoming environment.

Q.5: What is the meaning of Hijra? Where did it take place?

Ans: Hijra refers to the migration of Prophet Muhammad () from Makkah to Yathrib (Madina) for the sake of safety and the preservation of faith. After leaving Makkah, the Prophet () made a stop at a place called Quba and built a mosque there on June 28, 622 A.D. On July 2, 622 A.D., he entered Yathrib. This event marked the beginning of the Islamic calendar.

Q.6: Which groups of people resided in Madina at the time of Prophet Muhammad's () arrival?

Ans: When Prophet Muhammad () arrived in Madina, the city consisted of four main groups:

1. Muslims, including those from Madina and those who migrated from Makkah.
2. Hypocrites, who outwardly embraced Islam but were against it.
3. People from the Aws and Khazraj tribes, who were pagans but likely to accept Islam.
4. Jews, who formed a significant community in Madina.

Q.7: How did the Holy Prophet () ensure peace among the people of Madina?

Ans: To establish peace among the various groups in Madina, Prophet Muhammad () invited the prominent figures from all communities for discussions. The aim was to reach a formal agreement, known as the Constitution of Madina or the Charter of Madina. This agreement promoted harmony among the communities and ensured the security of Madina.

Q.8: What were the key points mentioned in the Charter of Madina?

Ans: The Charter of Madina contained three main points:

1. It defined the rights and responsibilities of Muslims and Jews in Madina, granting religious freedom.
2. It prohibited alliances with external enemies.
3. It established Prophet Muhammad () as the arbiter in case of disputes among the communities.

Q.9: What measures did the Holy Prophet () take to strengthen the Muslim community in Madina?
