

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

Learning Objectives

- Describe what files, folders and drives are.
- Create a folder on the desktop.
- Search for files and folders.

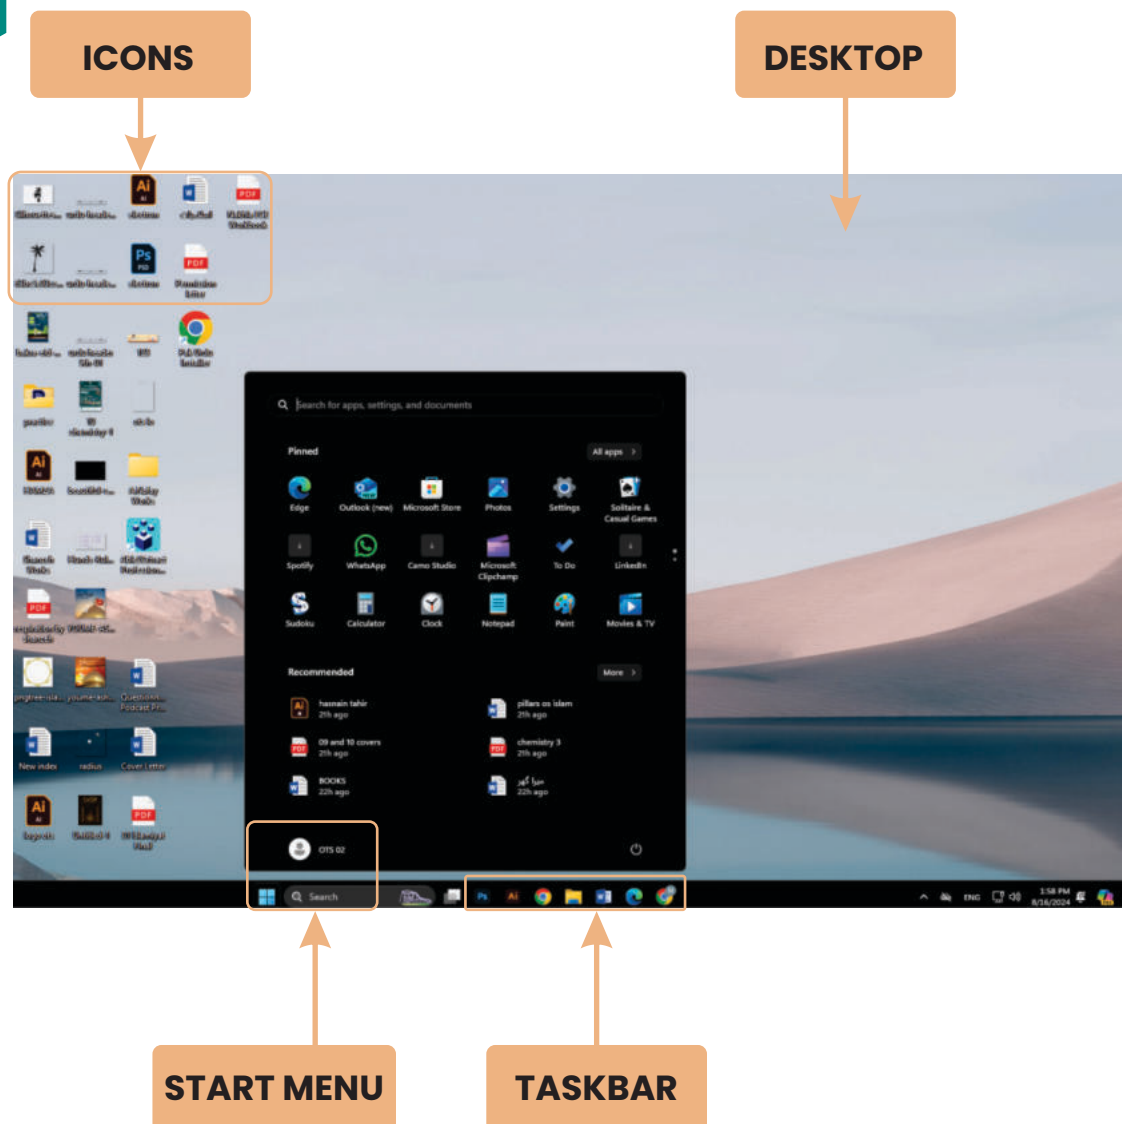

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

THE DESKTOP

The desktop is the main screen on your computer where you can see and open your programs, files, and tools. It has pictures (icons) that let you quickly start things, a bar at the bottom (taskbar) to manage and open programs, and a menu (Start Menu) to find and start new programs.

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

FILES

A file stores data and information. It can be a document, picture, music, or video.

ICONS

Icons are small pictures on the computer screen that represent files, folders, or programs.

Types of Files

Documents

Represented by icons like Word or PowerPoint.

Pictures

Common formats include JPG and PNG.

Videos

Includes formats like AVI and MOV.

Audio

Examples are MP3 and WAV files.

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

FOLDERS

A folder is used to organize files. A folder can contain multiple files and even other folders.

COMPUTER 02

DRIVES

A drive is a storage location on a computer where files and folders are kept.

Types of Drives

Local Drive

Stores files on the computer itself.

DVD RW Drive

Used for reading/writing CDs and DVDs.

Removable Drive

External storage, like a USB drive, that can be connected and removed.

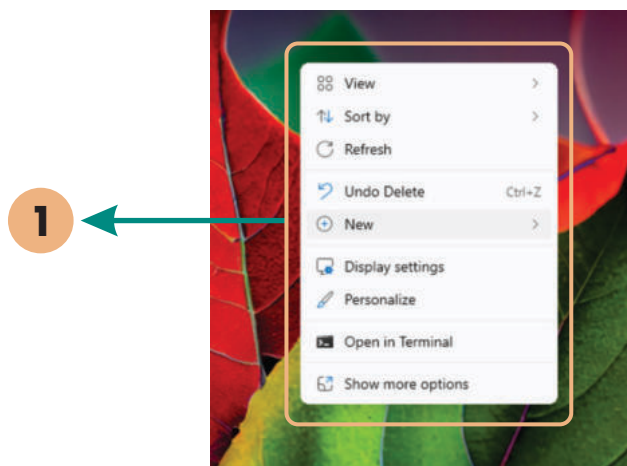

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

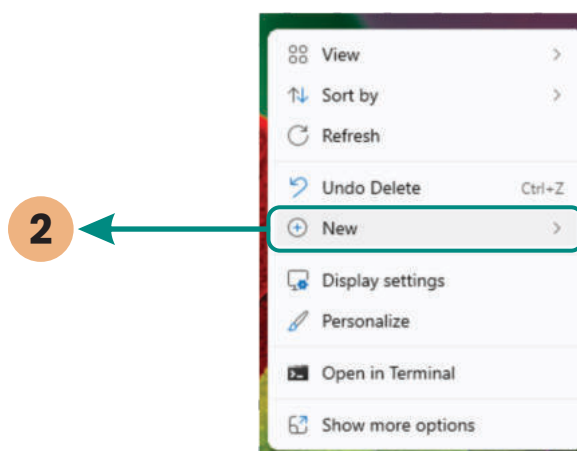

CREATING A FOLDER ON THE DESKTOP

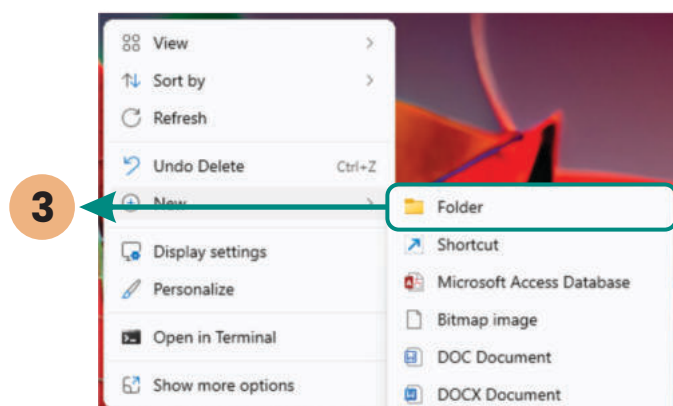

1. I right-click on a blank space on the desktop.

2. I click on New in the menu which appears.

3. I click on Folder.

UNIT 3

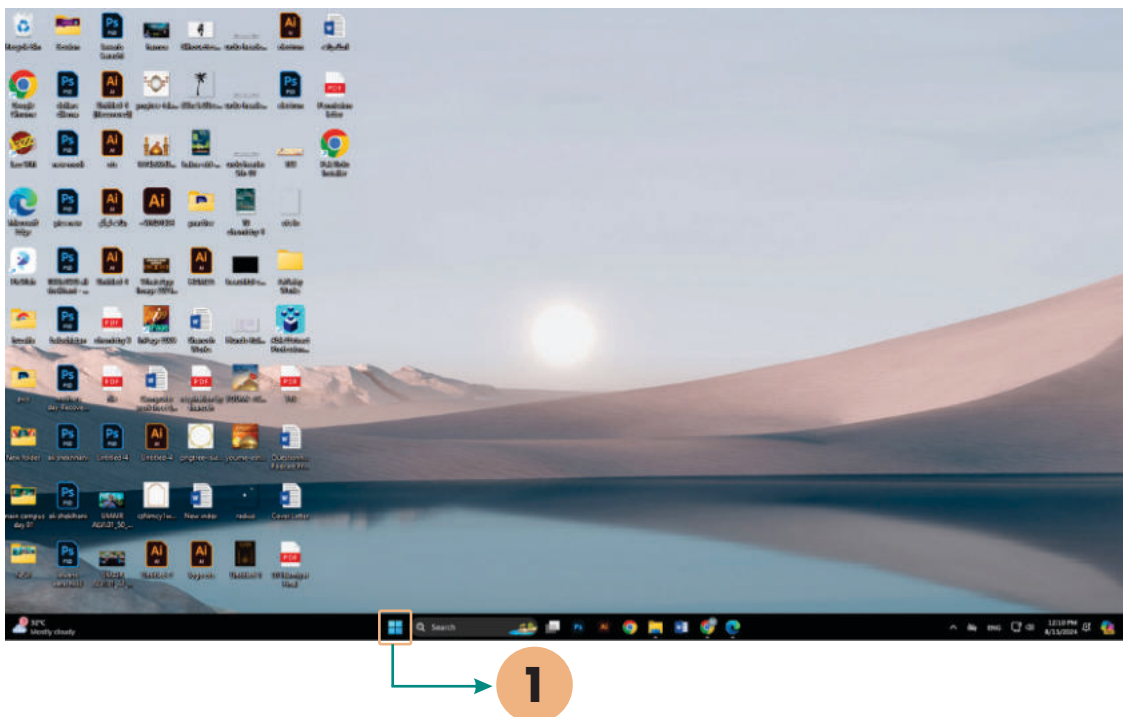

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

4. The icons of a new folder will appear on the desktop.
I click on the desktop OR I press enter on the keyboard.

SEARCHING FOR FILES AND FOLDERS

1. I click on the Start button.

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

2. I type the names of the file OR folder which I am searching for in the search box.

3. I type “cliparts” in the search box as shown below:

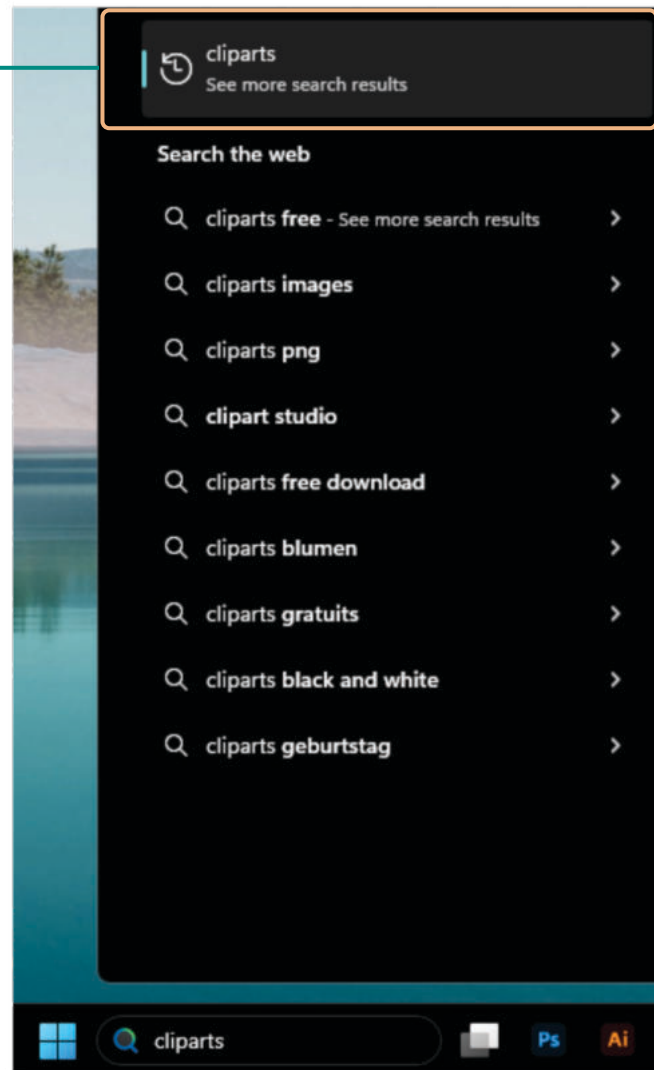

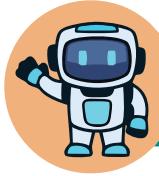

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

4. I click on the file named 'cliparts' to open it.

4

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

Q1. What does a file store?

Q2. What are icons?

Q3. What is a folder?

Q4: What is a drive?

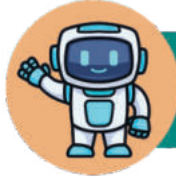

Q5. What types of drives are there?

Q6. What are the steps to make a folder on the desktop?

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

EXERCISE 1

Mark "True" or "False".

TRUE

FALSE

A file stores information.

☐☐

Files can be stored in a folder.

☐☐

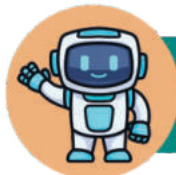

A folder cannot contain other folders.

☐☐

Files are represented by icons on the desktop.

☐☐

When I delete a file, it goes to the recycle bin.

☐☐

EXERCISE 2

Choose the correct answer.

1. A _____ is a collection of data or information, such as text or images, stored on a computer.

A

file

B

folder

2. A _____ helps organize files and other folders on a computer.

A

icon

B

folder

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

3. Some icons represent _____.

A

drive

B

files

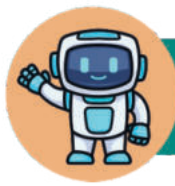

4. The _____ is used to store files and folders.

A

drive

B

file

EXERCISE 3

Complete the steps to create a folder on the desktop.

1. Right-click on a blank area of the _____.
2. Click on _____ in the menu which appears.
3. Click on _____.
4. A new _____ will appear on the desktop with the name "New Folder" highlighted.
5. Type the _____ you want for the folder.
6. Press _____ to confirm the new folder name.

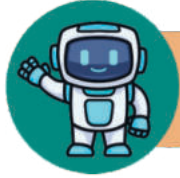

DO YOU KNOW?

You can use the Recycle Bin, a special place on the computer, to keep deleted files and folders for a while.

UNIT 3

COMPUTER OPERATIONS

ACTIVITY

Practise basic operations by creating a new folder on the desktop, naming it, and moving a file into it. Then, delete the folder and retrieve it from the recycle bin.