Past Simple is used for: • past actions that took place immediately one after the other. He got in the car, started the engine and drove off.	Past Continuous is used for: • an action which was in progress at a stated time in the past. At 1 o'clock this afternoon they were having coffee.
• past habits or states which are now finished. In such cases, we can also use the expression used to.	• a past action which was in progress when another action interrupted it. I was playing football when I broke my ankle.(The action in progress — was playing (Past Continuous) — was interrupted by another action — broke (Past Simple)).
• She was happy, he wasn't sad, were they ill?, weren't you absent from the class? We had a chance, she didn't have car, Did you have flu? Didn't Ali have money? When he was young, he rode/used to ride his bike to school.	• two or more actions which were happening at the same time in the past (simultaneous actions). He was cooking while she was sleeping.

- a complete action or event which happened at a stated time in the past.

She passed her exam last week.
(when? "last week" – stated time in the past)

- background description to events in a story/description.

They were travelling to Swansea ...

Was Going To

Formation:

Subject + was/were going to + base form of verb

- Expresses actions one intended to do but didn't.

• Example:

- She was going to move to London but decided to stay in York.
- I was going to call you, but I got busy.

Past Perfect is used for:

- an action which happened before another past action or before a stated time in the past.

She had already cooked dinner when her husband came home.
(She cooked dinner first and then her husband came.)

Past Perfect Continuous is used:

- for a continued action before past simple.

She had been trying to get a visa for months before she gave up.

- for a past action which lasted for some time in the past and whose result was visible in the past.

Her fingers ached because she had been playing the guitar all day.

Time expressions used with:

Past Simple

The Past Perfect Tense is used to talk about something that happened before another action in the past. It is formed using:
Subject + had + past participle (3rd form of verb)

1. Past Perfect with Dynamic (Action) Verbs

These verbs show actions that were completed before something else in the past.

- I had eaten lunch before my friend arrived. (First, I ate lunch, then my friend came.)
- She had finished her homework before going to bed. (First, she finished homework, then she slept.)

2. Past Perfect with Stative (State) Verbs

These verbs describe states, not actions (e.g., being, knowing, having, liking, etc.).

- I had known him for five years before he moved away. (I knew him for a long time, and then he moved.)
- She had been tired all day before she finally rested. (She was tired for a long time, then she rested.)
- We had had a great time before the rain started. (We were enjoying, then the rain came.)

Exercise: 1

Fill in the Blanks with the Correct Form of Past Perfect

(Use "had + past participle" in each sentence.)

1. Before the teacher arrived, the students _____ (finish) their work.

Exercise: 4

Rewrite the Sentences Using Past Perfect for States

Example: I was happy before the bad news came.

I had been happy before the bad news came.

1. She was nervous before the test started.
2. We had a good friendship before she moved away.
3. They knew the answer before the teacher explained it.
4. He felt excited before the trip was cancelled.
5. I had a favourite toy before it broke.
6. She believed in magic before she grew up.
7. The city was peaceful before the traffic increased.
8. He thought the game would be easy before he played it.
9. We were neighbors before they shifted to another country.
10. You understood the story before your friend explained it.

The past perfect continuous tense is used to talk about an action that was happening for some time in the past before another action happened.

Subject + had been + verb (-ing) + object + time reference

Examples:

She had been studying for two hours before her mother called her.

He had been running for an hour before he took a break.

They had been playing football before it started to rain.

I had been writing a story before the power went out.

2. State Verbs (Get, Become, Turn, Grow) in the Past Perfect Continuous

State verbs do not show an action but rather a state or change over time.

Some state verbs (like get, become, turn, grow) show a gradual change, so they can sometimes be used in the past perfect continuous.

Examples:

She had been getting tired before she finally rested.

The weather had been becoming colder before the snowfall.

The leaves had been turning yellow before autumn started.

He had been growing taller before his birthday.

Exercise: 1

Rewrite the Sentences. Change the given sentences into affirmative, negative, or question form as instructed.

1. She studied for two hours before the test. (Change to past perfect continuous)
2. They had been playing football before it started raining. (Change to negative)
3. I had not been writing a letter before the power went out. (Change to affirmative)
4. He had been working on his project before the deadline. (Change to question)
5. We had been waiting for the bus before it arrived. (Change to negative)

Exercise: 2

Circle the correct verb form to complete the sentence.

1. By the time we reached the station, the train (had been leaving / had been waiting / had been arriving) for ten minutes.
2. She (had been cooking / has been cooking / had cooking) dinner before her guests arrived.
3. The children (had been watching / have been watching / had watched) cartoons before their father turned off the TV.
4. My friend (had been sleeping / has been sleeping / had been slept) before I knocked on his door.
5. They (had been working / had working / has been working) hard before they took a break.
6. _____ they _____ (been practising / had been practising / had been practised) for the competition before the coach arrived?
7. He _____ (did not study / had not studied / was not studying) properly before the test started.
8. _____ you _____ (had been read / had been reading / are reading) that book before the library closed?
9. I _____ (did not wait / had not waited / had not been waiting) long before my friend finally showed up.
10. _____ the teacher _____ (did explain / had explained / do explain) the lesson before the class ended?

A) Study this example:

Yesterday morning I got up and looked out of the window.
The sun was shining, but the ground was very wet.

It had been raining.

It was not raining when I looked out of the window.
The sun was shining. But it had been raining before.

had been -ing is the past perfect continuous.

I/we/you/they he/she/it	had	(=I'd) (=he'd)	been	doing working playing etc.
----------------------------	------------	-------------------	-------------	----------------------------------

Some more examples:

- My hands were dirty because I'd been repairing my bike.
- Zain was tired when he got home. He'd been working hard all day.
- I went to Lahore a few years ago and stayed with a friend of mine.
She hadn't been living there very long, but she knew the city very well.

You can say that something had been happening before something else happened:

- We'd been playing tennis for about half an hour when it started to rain heavily.

B) Compare have been -ing (present perfect continuous) and had been -ing (past perfect continuous):

Present perfect continuous

- I hope the bus comes soon. I've been waiting for 20 minutes. (before now)

- Ali is out of breath. He's been running. (= he has been ...)
- At last, the bus came. I'd been waiting for 20 minutes. (before the bus came)
- Ali was out of breath. He'd been running. (= he had been ...)

C) Compare was -ing (past continuous) and had been -ing:

- It wasn't raining when we went out. The sun was shining.
But it had been raining, so the ground was wet.
- Sofia was lying on the sofa. She was tired because she'd been working hard.

D) Some verbs (for example, know) are not normally used in continuous forms (be + -ing):

- We were good friends. We had known each other for years. (not had been knowing)
- A few years ago, Rida cut her hair really short. I was surprised because she had always had long hair. (not she'd been having)

Exercise: 1

Read the situations and make sentences using the words in brackets.

1. Zain was very tired when he got home. (He / work / hard all day)

He'd been working hard all day.

2. The children came into the house. They had a football and they were both very tired. (They / play / football)

_____.

3. I was disappointed when I had to cancel my holiday. (I / look / forward to it)

_____.

_____.

5. When I got home, Ali was sitting in front of the TV. He had just turned it off.
(He / watch / a film)

6. The people waiting at the bus stop were getting impatient. The bus was very late. (They / wait / a long time)

Exercise: 2

Read the situations and complete the sentences.

1. We played tennis yesterday. We didn't finish our game.

We'd been playing (We / play) for half an hour when it started (it / start) to rain.

2. I had arranged to meet Zain in a restaurant. I arrived and waited for him to come.

_____ (I / wait) for 20 minutes when _____ (I / realize) it was a wrong restaurant.

3. Sarah worked in a company for a long time. The company no longer exists.

At the time the company _____ (go) out of business, she _____ (work) there for twelve years.

4. I went to a concert. Soon after the orchestra began playing, something strange happened.

The orchestra _____ (play) for about ten minutes when a man in the audience suddenly _____ (start) shouting.

Now make your own sentence:

5. I began walking along the road.

I _____ when _____
_____.

Exercise: 3

Which is right?

1. It was noisy next door last night. Our neighbours were having / had been having a party. (were having is correct)
2. At the end of our journey we were extremely tired. We were travelling / We'd been travelling for more than 24 hours.
3. Ali was on his hands and knees on the floor. He was looking / He'd been looking for his contact lens.
4. Sofia was sitting on the ground. She was out of breath. She was running / She'd been running.
5. John and I went for a walk. He was walking / He'd been walking very fast and I had difficulty keeping up with him.
6. I was sad when I sold my car. I've had it / I'd had it for a very long time.
7. I was sad when my local cafe closed. I was going / I'd been going there for many years.
8. I'm running a marathon next month. I've been training / I'd been training for it every day.
9. I had arranged to meet Sofia, but I was late. When I finally arrived, she was waiting / she'd been waiting for me. She was annoyed because she was waiting / she'd been waiting such a long time.
- 10a. Zain and I work for the same company. He joined the company before me. When I started a few years ago, he was already working / he'd already been working there.
- 10b. I started working at the company a few years ago. At the time I started, Zain was already working / had already been working there for two years.
- 10c. Zain still works for the company. He's been working / He'd been working there a long time now.

13 USED TO (DO)

A) Study this example situation:

a few years ago

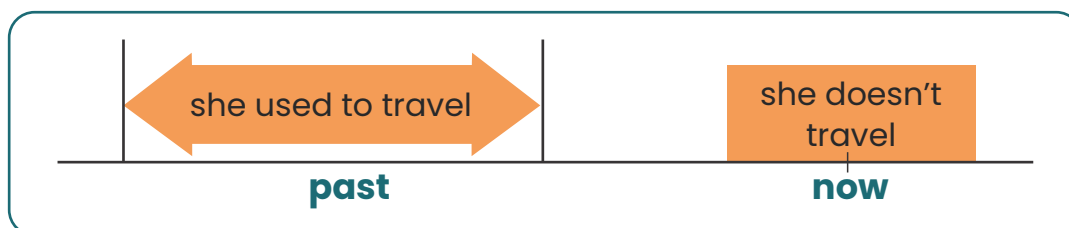

these days

Sofia doesn't travel much these days.
She prefers to stay at home.

But she used to travel a lot.
She used to go away two or three times a year.

She used to travel a lot = she travelled often in the past, but she doesn't do this any more.

B) I used to do something = I did it often in the past, but not any more:

- I used to play tennis a lot, but I don't play very much now.
- Zain used to spend a lot of money on clothes. These days he can't afford it.
- "Do you go to the cinema much?" "Not now, but I used to." (= I used to go)

We also use used to ... for things that were true, but are not true any more:

- This building is now a furniture shop. It used to be a cinema.
- I used to think Ali was unfriendly, but now I realise he's a very nice person.
- I've started drinking coffee recently. I never used to like it before.
- Rida used to have very long hair when she was a child.

C) 'I used to do something' is past. There is no present. You cannot say 'I use to do'.

To talk about the present, we use the present simple (I do).

Compare:

Past	he used to play	we used to live	there used to be Present	he plays	he lives	there is

- We used to live in a small village, but now we live in a city.
- There used to be four cinemas in the town. Now there is only one.

D) The normal question form is did (you) use to ...?:

- Did you use to eat a lot of sweets when you were a child? (= did you do this often?)

The negative form is didn't use to ... (used not to ... is also possible):

- I didn't use to like him. (or I used not to like him.)

E) Do not confuse I used to do and I am used to doing. The structures and meanings are different:

- I used to live alone. (= I lived alone in the past, but I no longer live alone.)
- I am used to living alone. (= I live alone, and it's not a problem for me because I've lived alone for some time.)

Exercise: 1

Complete the sentences with used to + a suitable verb.

1. Sofia used to travel a lot, but she doesn't go away much these days.
2. Sarah _____ a motorbike, but last year she sold it and bought a car.
3. Our friends moved to Spain a few years ago. They _____ in Paris.
4. Sami _____ my best friend, but we aren't friends any more.
5. I rarely eat ice cream now, but I _____ it when I was a child.
6. It only takes me about 40 minutes to get to work now that the new road is open. It _____ more than an hour.

7. There _____ a hotel near the airport, but it closed a long time ago.

8. I _____ in a factory. It wasn't my favourite job.

Exercise: 2

Complete the sentences. Choose from the box.

did didn't to use used used to used to be ~~used to have~~ be able

1. Rida used to have very long hair when she was a child.

2. We _____ to watch TV a lot, but we don't have a TV any more.

3. Rida works in a shop now. She _____ a receptionist in a hotel.

4. What games _____ you use to play when you were a child?

5. I _____ like big cities, but now I prefer the countryside.

6. In your last job, how many hours a day did you _____ to work?

7. I don't travel very much these days, but I used _____.

8. I _____ run ten kilometres, but I can't run that far now.

9. These days I eat more than before. I _____ use to eat as much.

Exercise: 3

Compare what Sarah said ten years ago and what she says today:

TEN YEARS AGO

TODAY

Now write about how Sarah has changed. Use used to / didn't use to / never used to in the first part of your sentence.

1. She used to travel a lot, but she doesn't go away much these days.

2. She used _____ but
_____.

3. She used _____ but
_____.

4. She used _____ but
_____.

5. She used _____ but
_____.

6. She used _____ but
_____.

Exercise: 4

Write sentences about yourself. Begin with I used to ... (I used to be/ have/ work /like/play, etc.)

1. I used to live in a small village, but now I live in a city.

2. I used to play tennis a lot, but I Don't play any more.

3. I used _____ but

_____.

4. I _____ but

_____.

5. _____.

6. _____.

Now begin with I didn't use to ...

7. I didn't use to read a lot, but I do now.

8. I didn't _____.

9. I didn't _____.

14 BE/ GET USED TO.... (I'M USED TO.....)

A) Study this example situation:

Lisa is American, but she lives in Britain.
When she first drove a car in Britain, driving on the left was a problem for her because:

She wasn't used to it.

She wasn't used to driving on the left.
(because Americans drive on the right)

But after some time, driving on the left became easier.
She got used to driving on the left.

Now it's no problem for Lisa:
She is used to driving on the left.

B) I'm used to something = it is not new or strange for me

be get	used to	something or doing something
-------------------	----------------	------------------------------------

- Paul lives alone. He has lived alone for a long time, so it is not strange for him. He's used to it. He is used to living alone.
- I bought some new shoes. They felt a little strange at first because I wasn't used to them.
- Our new apartment is on a busy street. I expect we'll get used to the noise, but at the moment it's very disturbing.
- Helen has a new job. She has to get up much earlier now than before – at 6.30. She finds this difficult because she isn't used to getting up so early.
- Katherine's husband is often away from home. She doesn't mind this. She's used to him being away.

C) We say 'be/get used to doing something' (not 'I'm used to do').

- Lisa is used to driving on the left. (not 'is used to drive')
- I'm used to living alone. (not 'I'm used to live')

When we say 'I am used to ...', to is a preposition:

- We're not used to the noise.
- We're not used to it.
- We're not used to living here. (not 'live here')

Compare to + infinitive (to do, to live, etc.):

- We don't want to live here.

D) Compare I am used to doing and I used to do:

I am used to (doing) something = it isn't strange or new for me:

- I'm used to the weather here.
- I'm used to driving on the left because I've lived in Britain a long time.

I used to do something = I did it regularly in the past but no longer do it. We
