UNIT 9 MASTERING ADVERBS

25 TYPES AND POSITION OF ADVERBS

Adverbs are words that modify verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs. They provide more information about how, when, where, or to what extent something happens. In this chapter, we will explore the different types of adverbs, their uses, and practical examples to enhance understanding.

1. What Are Adverbs?

Adverbs describe or modify:

- Verbs: She sings beautifully.
- Adjectives: The movie was very interesting.
- Other Adverbs: He ran quite quickly.

2. Types of Adverbs

1. Adverbs of Manner

- Meaning: Explain how an action is done.
- Examples: He speaks politely. She completed the task easily.
- Common Endings: Many adverbs of manner end in -ly.
- Examples: slowly, quickly, carefully

2. Adverbs of Time

- Meaning: Indicate when something happens.
- Examples: They arrived yesterday. I will call you soon.
- Common Words: now, then, today, tomorrow, already

3. Adverbs of Place

- Meaning: Show where an action happens.
- Examples: The children are playing outside. He looked everywhere for his keys.
- Common Words: here, there, nearby, abroad, upstairs

4. Adverbs of Frequency

- Meaning: Indicate how often something happens.
- Examples: She always forgets her keys. We rarely go out.
- Common Words: never, sometimes, often, usually, always

5. Adverbs of Degree

- Meaning: Express the intensity or degree of an action, adjective, or another adverb.
- Examples: I am very tired. She is extremely talented.
- Common Words: quite, too, very, almost, enough

3. Position of Adverbs

Adverbs can appear in different positions in a sentence depending on their type and use.

1. Beginning Position

- Used for emphasis or to modify the entire sentence.
- Examples:
 - Unfortunately, we missed the bus.
 - Yesterday, I went shopping.

2. Mid Position

- Placed before the main verb but after auxiliary verbs.
- Examples:
 - She always eats breakfast.
 - We have already finished the project.

3. End Position

- Common for adverbs of manner, place, and time.
- Examples:
 - He ran quickly.
 - They will meet us here.

4. Formation of Adverbs

1. Adding -ly

Most adverbs are formed by adding -ly to adjectives.

- Examples: slow → slowly, quick → quickly

2. Exceptions

Some adverbs have the same form as their adjectives.

- Examples: fast, hard, late, early

3. Irregular Adverbs

Some adverbs do not follow standard formation rules.

- Examples: good → well, hard → hard

5. Adverbs with Two Forms and Different Meanings

Adjective/Adverb	Adverb (ly)	Meaning
Hard	Hardly	Hard: with effort; Hardly: almost not
High	Highly	High: at a great height; Highly: very much
Late	Lately	Late: not on time; Lately: recently

Free: without cost;
Freely: willingly

6. Common Mistakes with Adverbs

1. Using an adjective instead of an adverb:

- Incorrect: She sings beautiful.
- Correct: She sings beautifully.

2. Misplacing adverbs of frequency:

- Incorrect: She eats always lunch.
- Correct: She always eats lunch.
