PRONOUN

A pronoun is a word used instead of a noun. It is generally used to avoid repetition of the noun.

For example:

- Hania was absent because she was ill.
- Hassan did not play because he was injured.
- My parents arrived yesterday. They arrived a day too late.
- You are a doctor.
- I am a teacher.

A pronoun should be of the same number, person and gender as the noun for which it stands

There are Seven Kinds of Pronouns

1. Personal pronoun
2. Relative pronoun
3. Indefinite pronoun
4. Reflexive pronoun
5. Demonstrative pronoun
6. Interrogative pronoun
7. Distributive pronoun

We shall discuss only the first two because they are more important and widely used kinds of pronouns.

Personal Pronoun

Stands for three persons:

1. The person speaking (i.e., First Person)
2. The person spoken to (i.e., Second Person)
3. The person spoken of (i.e., Third Person)

- Different Forms of Personal Pronouns are given below:

•First Person

3

VERB

A verb is a word that shows either an action or a state (=condition of a person or thing). We cannot make a sentence without a verb. It is, therefore, the most important word in a sentence.

For example:

- Ayesha takes her meals in the afternoon.
- The sun rises in the east.
- She has learnt her lesson.
- Girls were singing.
- He speaks the truth.

A verb may refer to:

1. Present time

2. Past time

3. Future time

- A verb that refers to the present time is said to be in the Present tense.
- A verb that refers to the past time is said to be in the Past tense.
- A verb that refers to the future time is said to be in the Future tense.

4 ADVERB

An adverb is a word that qualifies (or adds to) the meaning of a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

For example:

•The Degrees of Adjective

Some adjectives describe the quality of an object in three different ways:

1. The positive degree
2. The comparative degree
3. The superlative degree

•The Positive Degree

The positive degree shows the quality of an object without reference to any other object.

For example:

- He is a rich man.
- He is a bad man.

•The Comparative Degree

The comparative degree compares the quality of an object with the same quality of another.

For example:

- He is richer than his brother.
- He is worse than his brother.
- He is more honest than his brother.

•The Superlative Degree

The superlative degree shows the highest degree of the quality with reference to all other things of the same class.

For example:

- He is the richest man in the family.
- He is the worst man in the family.
- He is the most honest man in the family.

Exercise

Use the correct form of the adjective in the following sentences.
